Gentle and Quiet Spirit (Silverday Press)

Virginia Lefler $13.00

Virginia Lefler gives Christian women a new perspective of Peter's injunction to have a "gentle and quiet spirit." With depth, clarity and vulnerability, she addresses the fears many women face in embracing their God-given role. She helps wives to discover their incredible worth to God and the peace and contentment of a gentle and quiet spirit. Twenty-five worksheets throughout the book make it especially useful as a quiet time study or as a guide for a women's class or discussion group.

The Complete Guide to Grace (Silverday Press) $15.00
 James Lefler
 A clear understanding of God's grace is empowering, but explanations of grace often do more to muddy the water than clarify its meaning. The words grace, mercy and salvation are used interchangeably, in ways inconsistent with the original Hebrew and Greek. Frequently, grace is defined as unmerited favor. However, when we focus on how unworthy we are to receive it, we tend to make it more about us than about God, and we risk missing the full impact of His favor.

What Happens When We Die? (IPI) $20.00
 Dr. Douglas Jacoby
 A long-neglected biblical teaching. Relying on Biblical and early-Christian sources, Dr. Douglas Jacoby offers a thought-provoking audio series on what happens after we die. (IPI)
